TIGER

In Los Angeles, Baldwin Hill Reservoir cracked, then broke releasing a torrent which wrecked hundreds of evacuated homes, but produced few casualties.

Sandy Koufax won two as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Yankees four straight for the world championship. At year's end, Koufax was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Right: James Whittaker of Redmond, Washington, became the first American to reach the top of Mt. Everest.

Quints were born in Aberdeen, S. D., and in Venezuela in the same week. Here two of the American quints pose for pictures before going home.

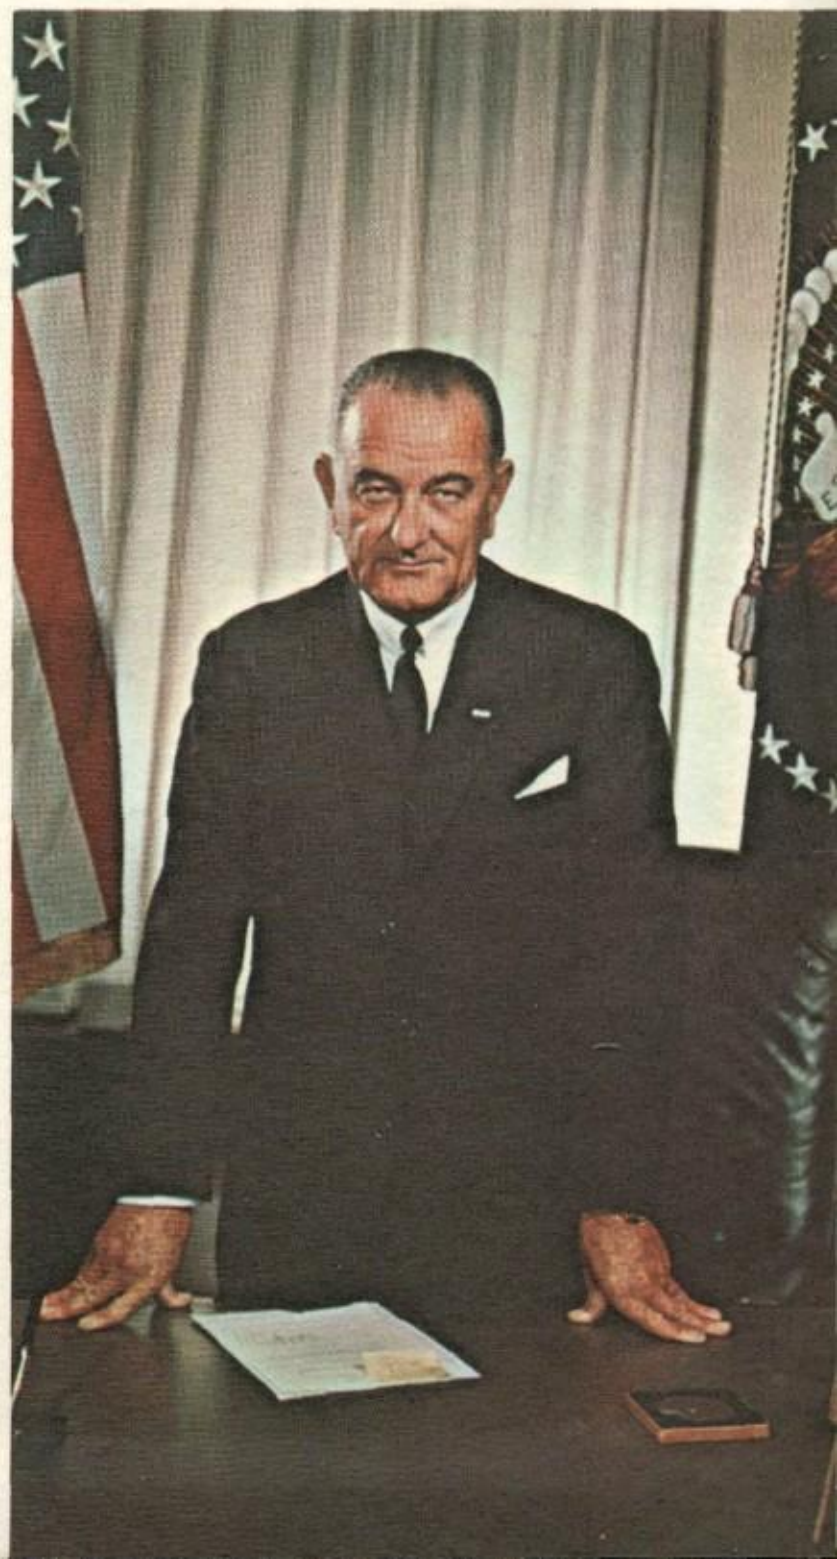

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took office immediately following President Kennedy's death and affirmed his intention of continuing the foreign and domestic policies of his predecessor.

Leaking gas exploded during the finale of an ice show in Indianapolis, killing and injuring many others.

Ransomed for $240,000, Frank Sinatra, Jr. returned home safely two days after being kidnaped and posed with his sister Tina, left, and his mother, Mrs. Nancy Sinatra.

National Events

Review—1963

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lübke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

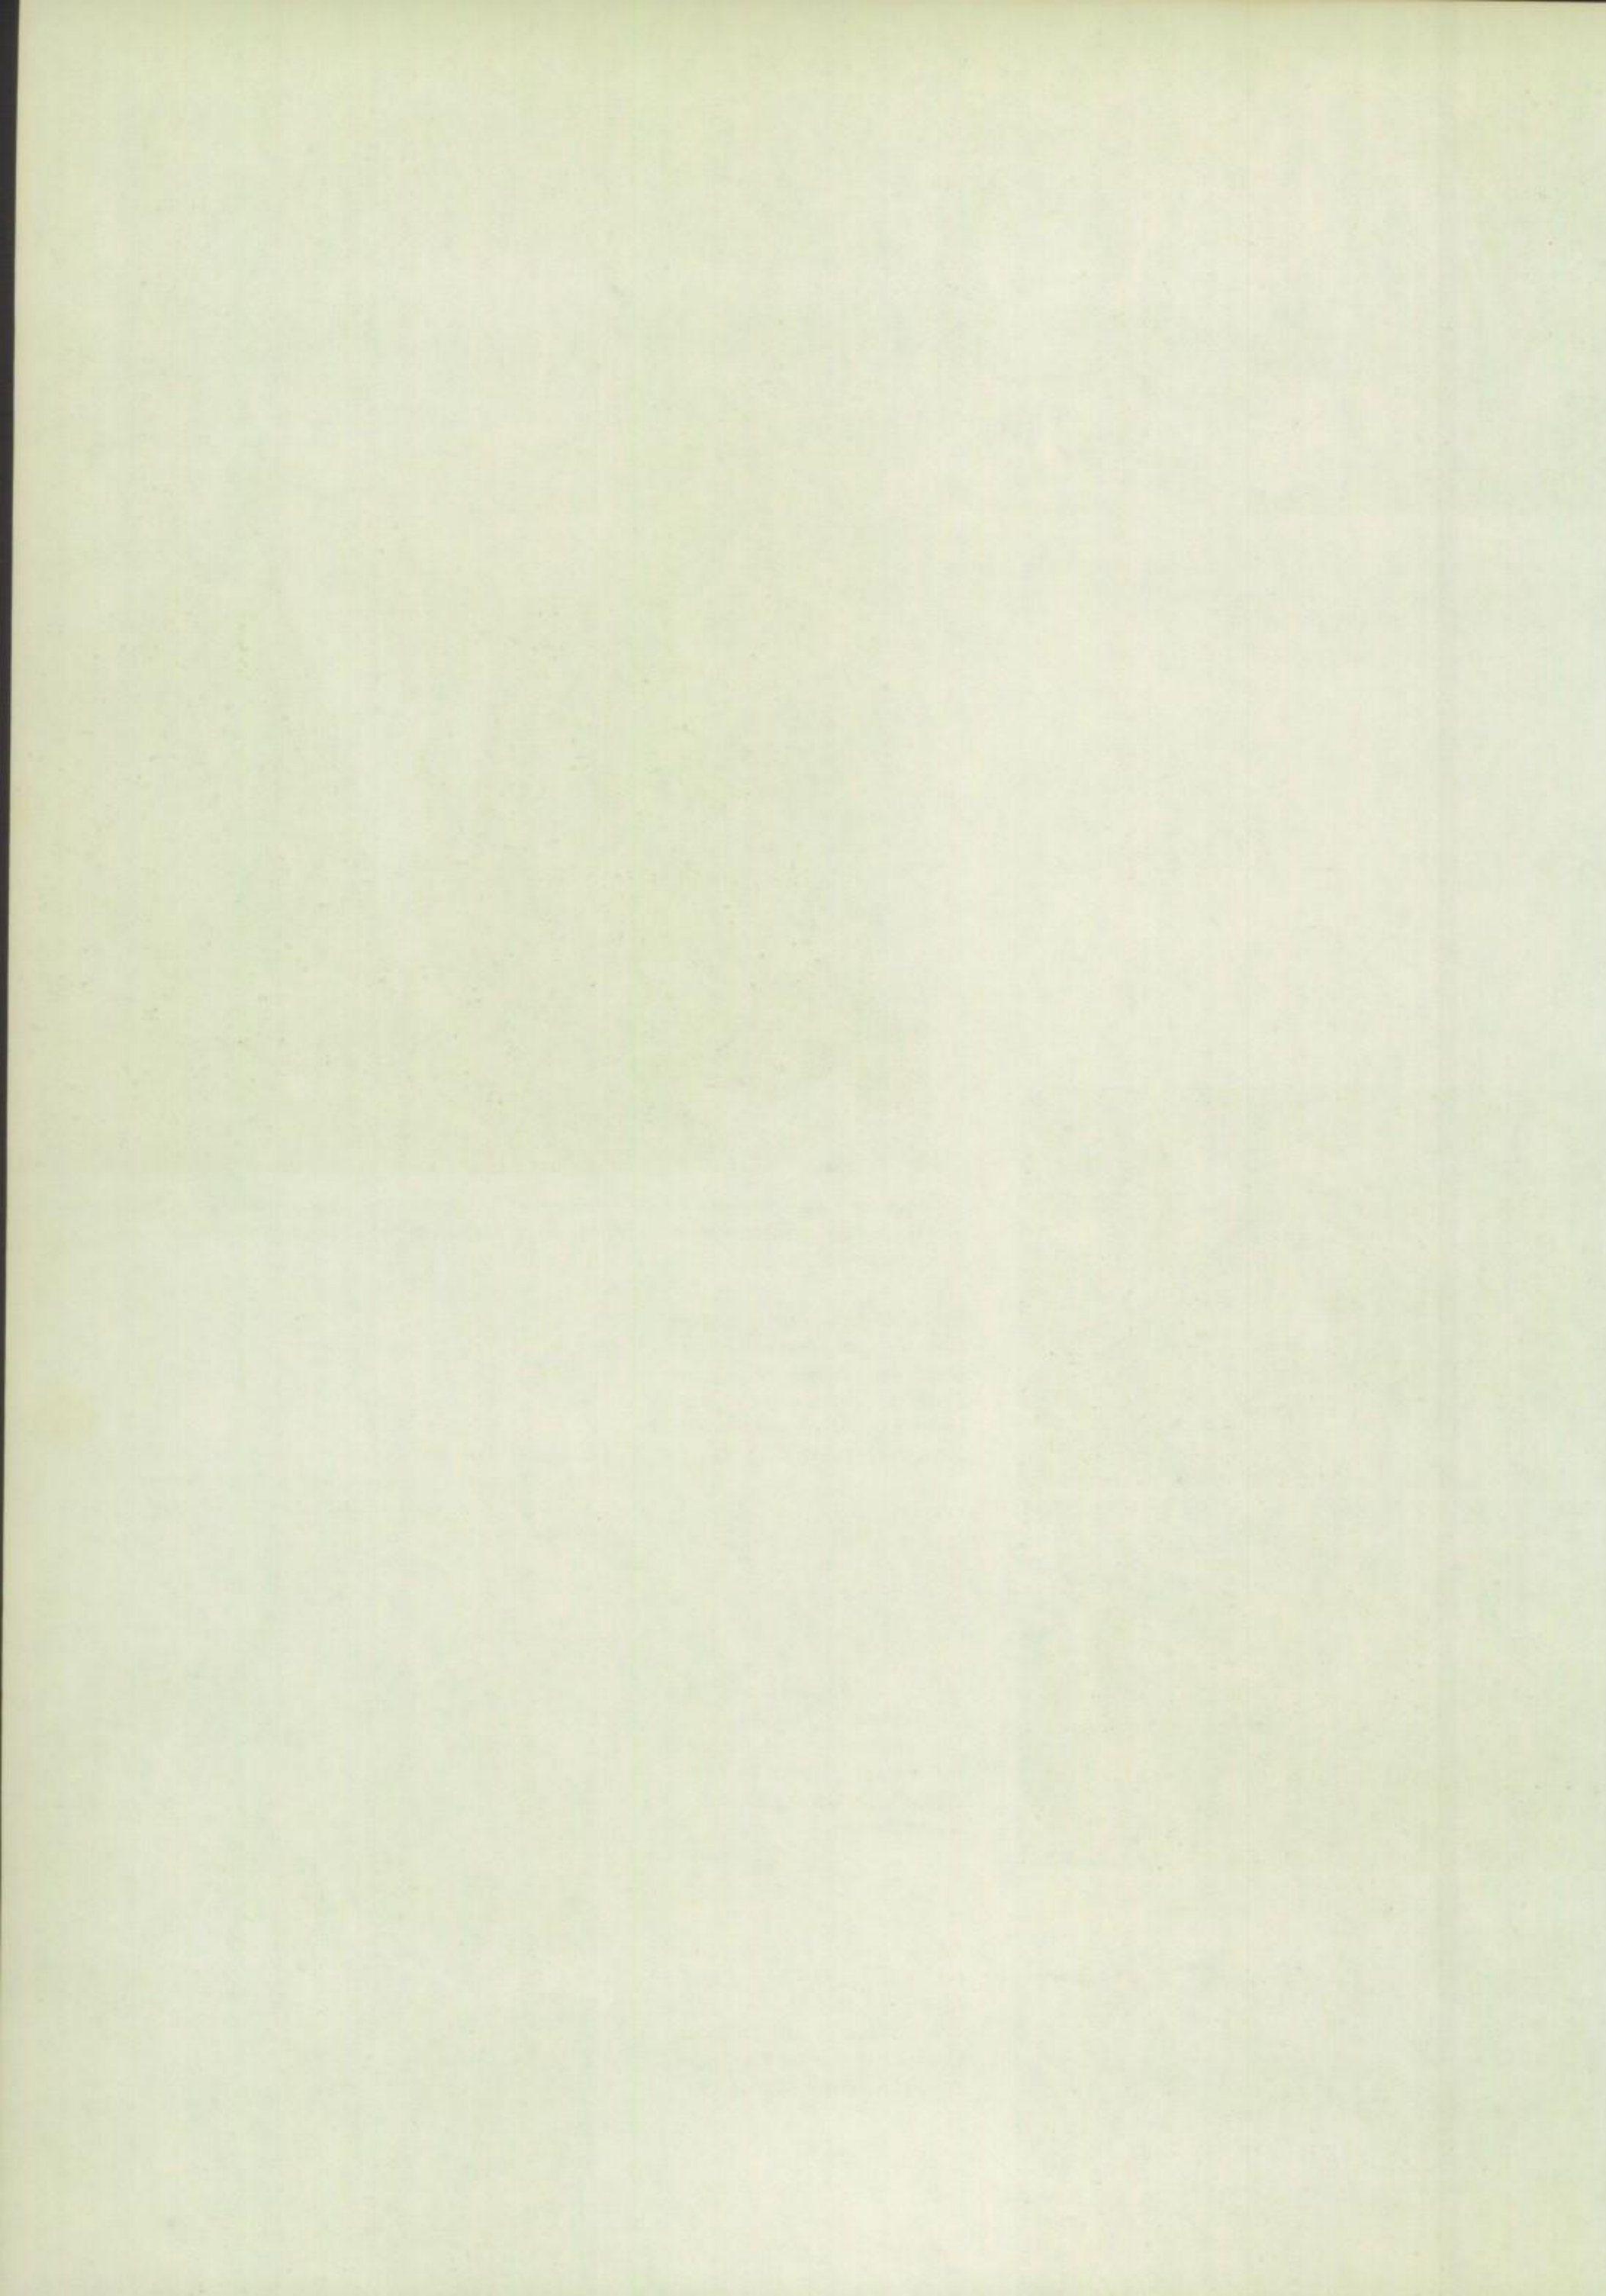

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

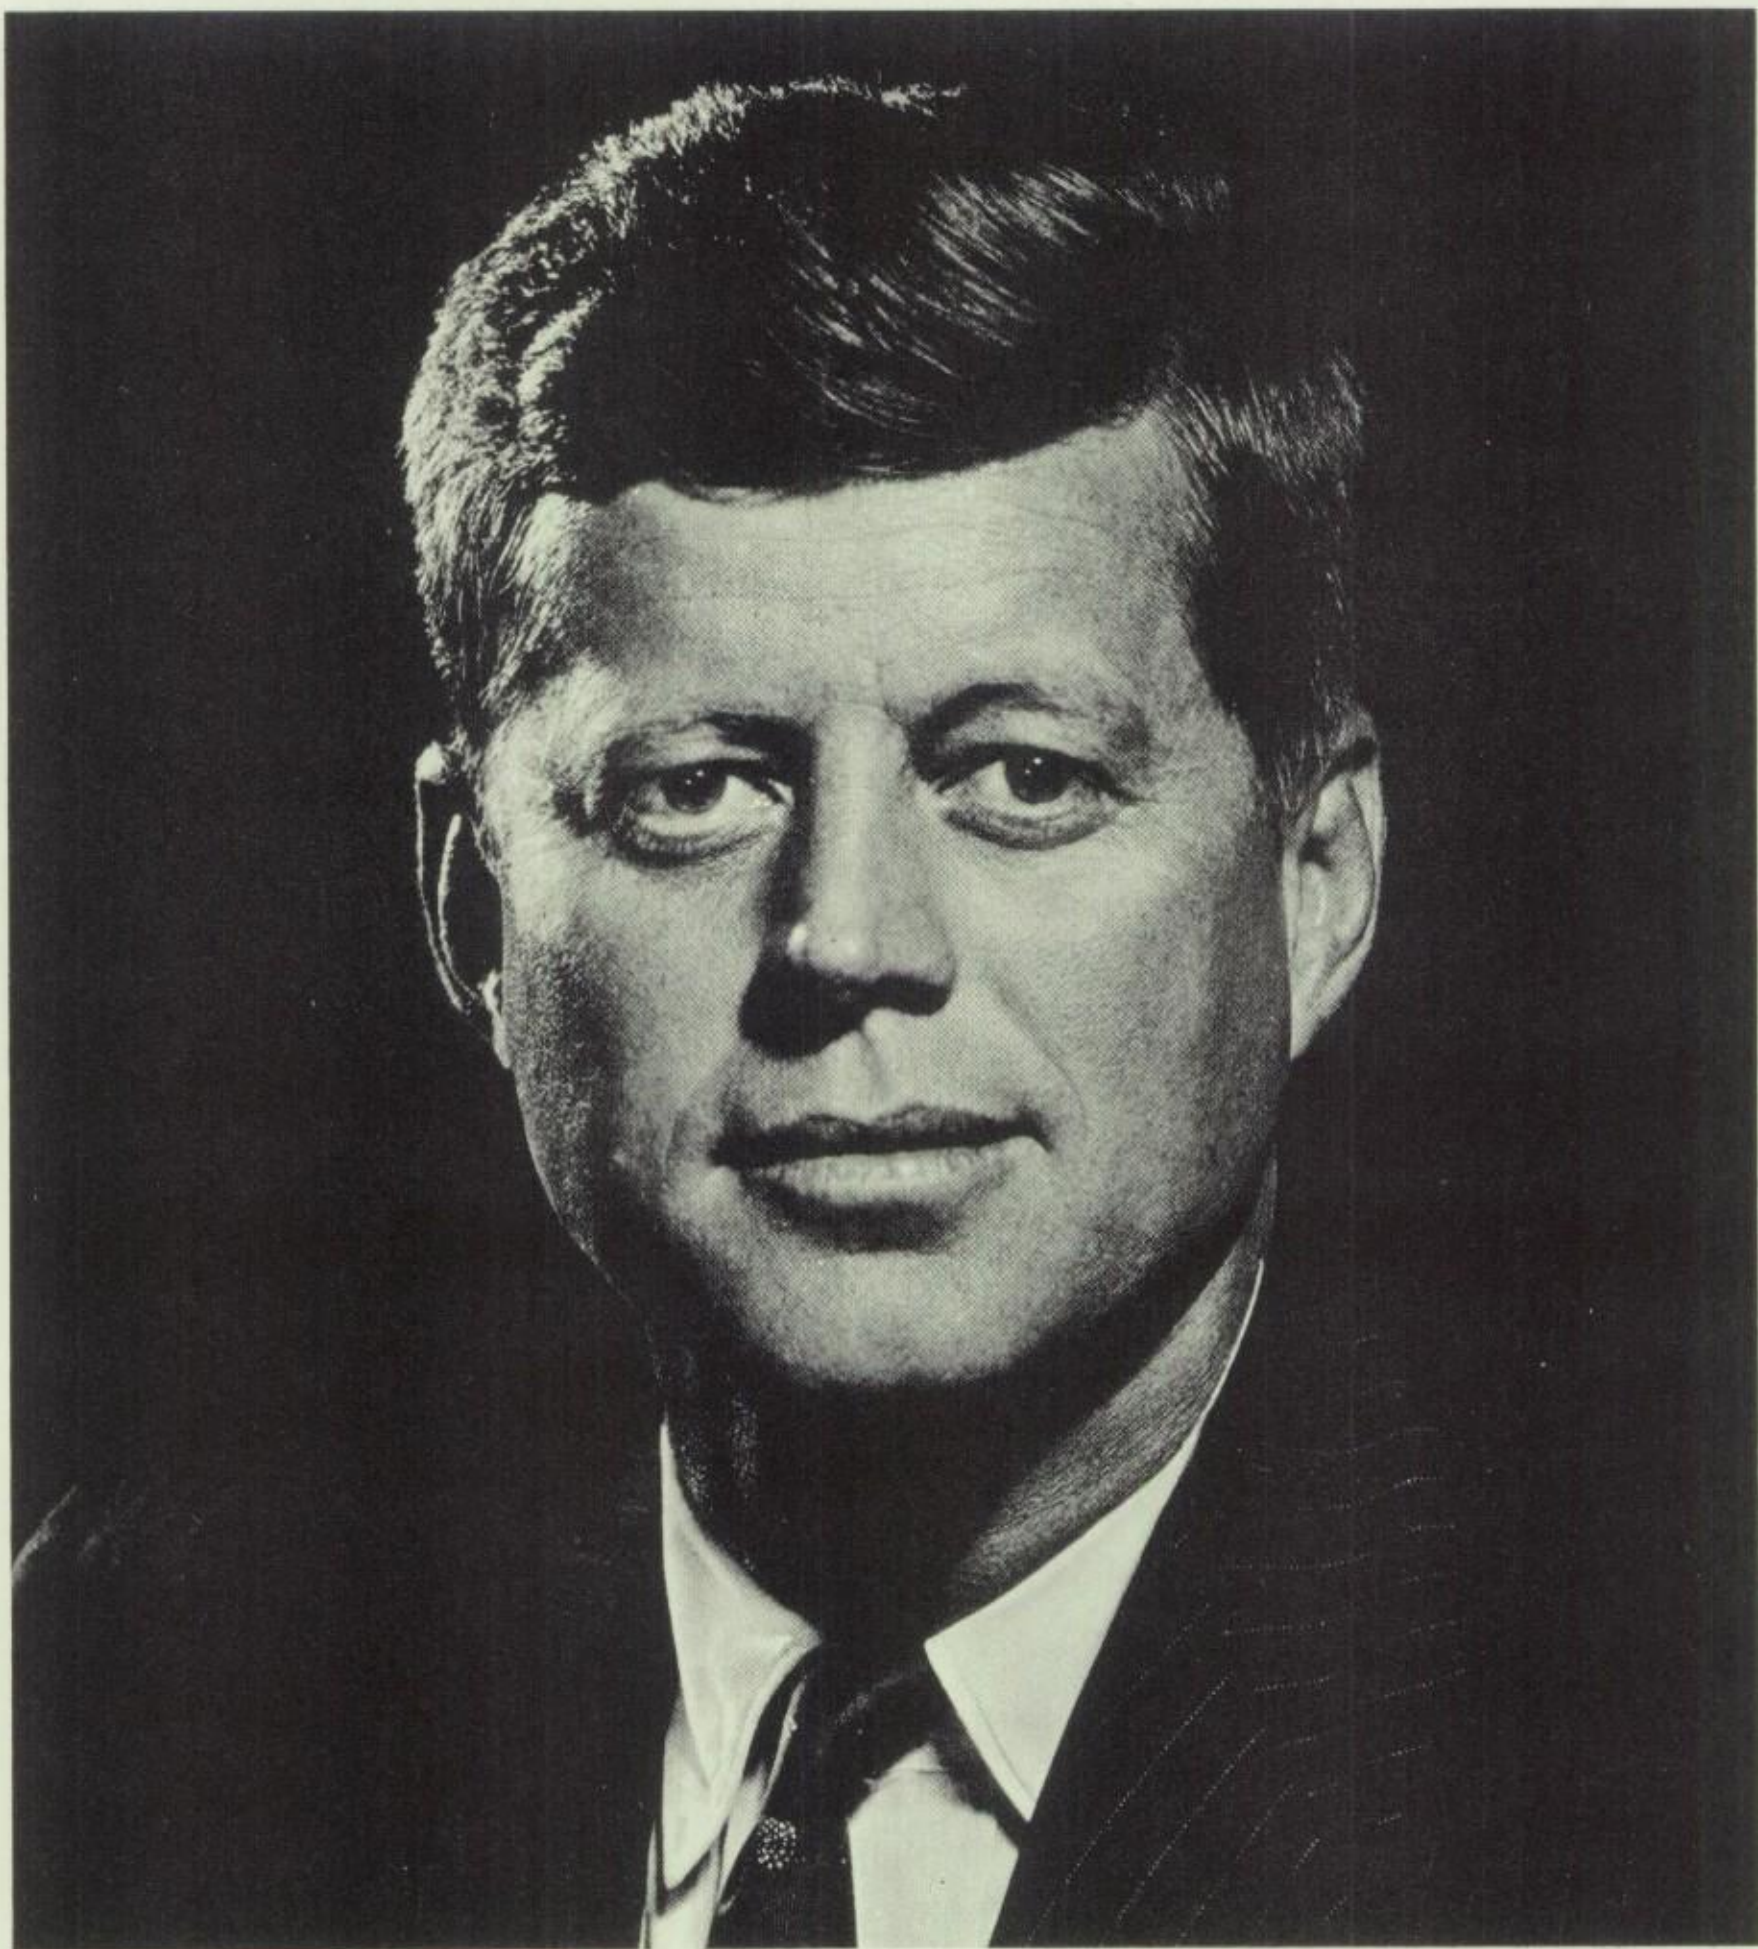

During the past year I often asked myself if we were putting out the 1964 or 1965 "TIGER." Mr. Bendix, Sandy, Gordy, Darrel and particularly Jim Cashman, our American Yearbook representative, asked me the same question, and not just once. Our deadlines were often late enough to have fit better into next year's schedule. There were hard times: Christmas vacation when the rest of the staff had to come up and work as I was gone, Greg taking pictures on New Year's Day and in the middle of the night just about and and even having the company lose one of our important pictures. But the good times and the fine people I worked with far exceeded the bad times, and problems are to be expected in a job this size. Mr. Bendix arrived fresh this year (and probably feels somewhat less than fresh about now) and aided me tremendously with his knowledge of photography, layouts, and his willingness to discuss any idea I came up with. "Toad" deserves special credit for stepping into the role of chief photographer for the year. When chips were down he had more energy and drive than anyone. Of course there's Sandy who made the fatal mistake of volunteering for business manager. The headaches she went through! Gordy and Darrel handled their job as sports editors (besides being rooked into doing a couple other pages) very conscientiously. Also I would like to thank Kathy, Marg and Pam for their time and effort. I'll always regard this as one of the most challenging and fulfilling jobs I've tackled. Good Luck with next year's book Colleen and Karen and thanks for the work you have put in on our annual. Also thanks again to everyone, staff or victims who helped to put this year's book to press.
